ARE WE A BLOG?

Well yes, and no. Let us explain.

When we first began WoodlandsMommy.com over a decade ago, we took more of a journalistic approach to keeping our readers in-the-know about community, news, events, and more. As time progresses and we see how our readers obtain and respond to the information that's important to them, we have begun to evolve into a resource that's somewhat blog-ish. And while the main thread that weaves who we are is and will continue to be "editorial", these days we give our readers a larger glimpse into our personal lives – adding blog-like content to our website and social media channels in an effort to connect with our audience in an even more "real" way. Sometimes they'll see what we're cooking for dinner or our favorite outfits and more. Feedback has been overwhelmingly positive!

SO, WHO'S RUNNING THE SHOW?

Mom-in-Charge, Karen Logan, is the Founder, Owner, and Editor-in-Chief of WoodlandsMommy.com. A native Texan and a resident of The Woodlands / Spring area for over 17 years, she shares her home with her husband and four children ranging in age from 7 to 16 years old.

From time to time, WoodlandsMommy.com employs additional editorial & administrative team members, guest bloggers, and a volunteer Street Team.

Why advertise with WoodlandsMommy.com?

We have a local niche market.

WoodlandsMommy.com appeals to moms of all ages! If you wish to reach moms, this is your outlet! (We even have "dad" visitors.) Most of our visitors reside in The Woodlands and the surrounding areas. If you have a business, product, or service that will appeal to resident moms of The Woodlands area, WoodlandsMommy.com is the best place for effective, affordable, widespread advertising.

We're respected in the mommy community.

Moms like us. We speak their language (After all, we're moms too), and we're always dishing up great stuff. Our readers love our entertaining yet professional style, helpful tips, exciting give-aways, and fun WoodlandsMommy.com-sponsored events. Simply put, when we talk (or write) moms listen.

Our web content is dynamic.

We're content creators, and much of the information on WoodlandsMommy.com is updated daily, so moms just can't stop coming back for more! Moms who drop in several times a week find something new with each visit.

We work hard to spread the word about our site.

We don't just publish a website. We market it constantly to ensure that every mom in the area visits the site as often as possible. We employ social network media such as Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram to draw in our readership base and entice old and new users to our features, thus giving your ad more exposure.

Community Outreach / Events

Local Events

The COVID-19 pandemic has put our events on hiatus for 2021. Past WoodlandsMommy.com events have been free to the public and have included Mommy Socials, Mother's Day Soirees, Valentine's Extravanzas, Sip & Shop Events, Shopapalooza, Coffee & Karaoke, Mom's Kick Butt, Crash Course in Dance, Hotel tours, and on-the-spot giveaways around the community.

We look forward to kicking off new events as soon as it's safe to do so! Opportunities for local businesses include Hosting, Sponsorship, Vendor / Exhibitor presence, and Goody Bag inclusion.

Homeschool Family Expo, 2013 - 2021 (retired event)

In 2013, we produced and organized the first annual Homeschool Family Expo for the Greater Houston Area and have successfully produced the event each year since. Our final expo event was held in the late summer of 2021, at which time we sold our expo to a separate entity. If you offer local classes & programs, contact us about being included in our online Homeschool Hub.

The “Big Bang Campaign”

With the “Big Bang Campaign” our goal isn’t to sell you basic advertising. The Big Bang Campaign is all about “promoting”, plugging, and really driving new interest in your company, which is why most often we hand-select our Big Bang Campaign clients, because when we stand behind a product/service/business to such an extent, it had better be something our mommy audience can take to the bank! (Please inquire! If you have a product or service that our readers will love for themselves or their families, chances are you’re a great candidate for this campaign.)

In essence, you rule our world. When you allow us to represent your company in the “Big Bang” way, we eat, drink, and breathe your company throughout the entire campaign! NOTE: Our schedule fills quickly, and since we insist on exclusivity for this campaign (we focus our efforts on one Big Bang client at a time, for maximum effectiveness), we urge you to schedule your campaign dates in advance.

- 3 Featured advertorials about your company on our Home Page, front & center (posted in 15-day increments, 300 words max). Suggested topics: Introduction of your company, Interesting facts about services offered, Profile of success (owner/company), Expert Q&A, Customer Testimonials/Success Stories, etc. Client submits advertorial. We reserve the right to edit content to simulate our editorial style.
- Advertorial inclusion in the WoodlandsMommy.com e-newsletter (120 words plus logo and photo, one time during each campaign month).
